

Job Title: Head Basketball Coach Boys/Girls

Mill Springs Academy of Alpharetta, GA, a college-prep school serving non-traditional learners, invites applications for a Head Basketball Coach for Boys and Girls. Mill Springs Academy is a non-profit private school that provides a college preparatory education to non-traditional learners in grades K-12. Located on 85 acres in Alpharetta, GA, the school offers a variety of additional opportunities for its teachers through coaching, summer school, and summer camp.

Position Description:

The role of the head varsity basketball coach is to be a positive role model, have appreciation for sportsmanship and teamwork. Duties include instruction, ability to communicate with players and parents, and travel. Applicants must be available to coach Monday-Friday beginning at 3:30pm. Previous coaching experience is preferred, and applicants will need a background check.

Core Values:

Courteous - We value relationships that are based on attentive communication. We expect all members of the community to practice open, honest communication and to do so in a mannerly and supportive way.

Considerate - We value relationships that are based on showing others respect and dignity. We want all students, teachers and parents to be aware of and considerate of each other's differences. Through words, actions and expectations, the community acknowledges and accepts all members.

Cooperative - We value a community that is collaborative and responsive to the needs of its members and of the larger world. The collective group of students, teachers and parents respond/react to individuals and groups with a shared interest in determining the best course of action to meet academic, social, emotional, and/or physical needs.

Please forward cover letters and resumes to Patsy Beckwith, Director of Human Resources.
